carrazzomobile weeks will be a wide theatre where excellent artists who work with stones will show their creations. Involving companies which deal with Carrara Marmoles. Companies and many others will be protagonists of an event which starts from the fair and reaches its high point in the town. But this is not the only target because the town, aware of its magnificent cultural and historic heritage, wants to regain possession of its role of world capital of marble, in order to be able to cope with the national and international scene. Architecture will be one of the main topics and there will be a preview during the April design week of Milan, with the participation of marble companies of INTERNI LEGACY and a project signed by the prestigious Architecture Studio SOM (Skidmore, Owings & Merrill), which will be presented in Carrara too, in Carrara there will also be the second edition of the conference "design with marble", organized by "INTERNI" magazine, while a project in collaboration with the "IQD" magazine will provide poster lighting in Carrara historical centre.
